RCC Pilotage Foundation : Mediterranean Spain Costas del Sol and Blanca before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mediterranean Spain Costas del Sol and Blanca:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Very useful By ProfessIt was our first time yachting in Mediterranean and this book helped us very much. We found description of each marina, each port, good and bad places for anchoring, phones and web-sites of marinas. In addition, author's comments about price levels and availability of berths in hot season helped us.

John Marchment has produced the revisions for this edition of the RCC's well-known guide to the long Spanish Mediterranean coast between Gibraltar and Denia. This is an important pilot for yachts coming to and from Northwest Europe and the Atlantic from the Balearic Islands and more distant parts of the Mediterranean. The clear sailing directions provide all the essential information for passage making or hopping along the coast between harbours and anchorages. This new 6th edition has been extended to include better coverage of the Strait of Gibraltar and the Spanish enclaves of Melilla and Ceuta in Morocco. This edition contains new photographs and routine updating of the details of harbours and anchorages.

About the AuthorThe RCC Pilotage Foundation was incorporated as a company limited by guarantee in 2005 and is a registered charity. It is run by volunteer members of the RCC. The Foundation publishes pilotage information through books and a range of media accessible via its own website RCCpf.org.uk Creation of new RCC Pilotage Foundation publications and updates to existing publications are only made possible through the supply of information from around the world by generous-minded yachtsmen and women, and the dedicated work of authors and editors.
