He absolutely loved this, and it kept him engaged and interested ...By Stinger72We looked for ways to keep our 9 year old interested during our family trip to Italy while we took many tours to explore the city! He absolutely loved this, and it kept him engaged and interested during the tours. Our tour guide even went out of her way to help him find things in the book.10 of 10 people found the following review helpful. Worth the TripBy R.S.We are currently in Rome using our mission book and we are LOVING it! All 4 of our kids (6, 8, 11, 13) are having a blast looking for details and learning about the city of Rome. I couldn't have picked a better way to do the city. We have traveled many places in Europe and this book has given the kids a way to remember what they've seen and learned. It certainly makes it feel as if the trip was worth it for them as well. I only wish we had learned about this book before we visited London and Paris! We will be purchasing any city mission book for cities we visit in the future!15 of 15 people found the following review helpful. Great for teenagers!By MARILYN THOMASI love these books! My kids are 12, 14 and 16 so I was afraid they might think they were "baby" books but they are enjoying them. I just wish there were books for London and Berlin.

We visited Rome for 5 days and this book ended up being far more useful than any of our guidebooks. My 8-year old loved this, as did I.' - Deborah S. Anderson 'This is a must have series for those of you traveling with kids! My 11 year old had such a great time in Rome using the book to find all the items at each location. Best of all our oldest son was home on college break and it was so great watching him help her hunt for the items at each location. That was priceless! I love that not only are these great for the kids but that I learn new things as well.' - Mrs. B. 'My daughters (ages 7 and 9) are so excited to use this when we go to Europe...a terrific idea of having the kids earn a certain number of points for each landmark they find, with the goal of getting to 100. Highly recommend!' - DLS87
