Buy all the travel guides you want, but make sure you buy this before you leave home! Even without using the journal pages in the back, this is easily one of the best things I could buy to come to Europe. I had the Moleskine City Notebook Paris when I studied abroad and I learned very quickly to trust the maps in this book as it has every single street in the city on the map. It also has pages that list all the streets and tell you where to find them on the map! If you're like me and you love getting yourself lost while wandering around cities, buy this book so that you can find your way back to your hotel/apartment/hostel/box at the end of the day. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Travel Gift By S. Limb Got this for a colleague in Secret Santa gift exchange. Was perfect as he was about to go away. Good quality, useful, and aesthetically pleasing. Fits in back pocket, so won't drag down travel bag.

The first guidebook you write yourself. Waffles, politics, museums: Brussels is a city of variety. As you explore the capital of Belgium, record your memories in a Moleskine City Notebook Brussels. The Key Map summarizes the overall layout of the city showing the sequence and location of the 14 zone maps. Map of the metro system and list of stations. Up to 76 blank pages giving you all the space you need to write jot down useful information and record your thoughts stories and memories. 32 removable sheets for loose notes and for exchanging messages. 12 translucent sticky sheets to overlay and re-position so that you can trace your route as you go. Up to 36 pages of zone maps ranging in scale from 1:5 000 to 1:17 000 with large-scale maps of the city center and an alphabetical street index. A personal 96-page archive with 12 tabs in two series of 6 so that everything that matters most is at your fingertips. The first 6 tabs are printed; the others are blank so you can personalize them with the enclosed adhesive labels.
