Moleskine : Moleskine City Notebook Kobenhavn (Copenhagen) (Moleskine City Notebooks) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Moleskine City Notebook Kobenhavn (Copenhagen) (Moleskine City Notebooks):

City Guides and was very disappointed in the quality of the city map chosen for the Copenhagen edition. It is incredibly hard to read in comparison to the maps used for Paris, Amsterdam, or Tokyo. The scale of the maps seemed off and the street names, even if abbreviated, were often laid out with such large type that it made street layouts very difficult to read. In addition, the street names were often laid out at awkward positions, often angled and hyphenated for maximum illegibility effect. The cramped feeling of the pages (again, probably an indication of poorly-chosen scale) also made it difficult for me to do one of my favorite things with Moleskine City Guides, which is to mark my own points of interest directly onto the map. Nevertheless, I still filled out the notebook with lists of sights, shops, and dining establishments to try, and I still used the handy pocket in the back of the notebook for holding ticket stubs and other ephemera from my trip... so it's not entirely useless.

The first guidebook you write yourself. Copenhagen began as a small fishing village thousands of years ago. Today this capital of Denmark is a destination for enthusiasts of history, sport, cuisine, music and science. Find your favorite places, and record them in the Moleskine City Notebook Copenhagen. The Key Map summarizes the overall city layout, showing the sequence and location of the 14 zone maps. Map of the Metro/S-tog system and list of stations, plus the alphabetical street index of the zone maps. Blank pages for jotting down notes and recording your thoughts, stories and memories. 32 removable sheets for loose notes and exchanging messages. 12 translucent sticky sheets for tracing your routes and sharing itineraries. A 96-page tabbed archive for collecting everything that matters most and keeping it at your fingertips. The first 6 tabs are printed; the others await your personalization with the enclosed adhesive labels. Each pocket sized Moleskine City Notebook is thread bound and has a cardboard bound cover with rounded corners, acid free paper, three bookmarks, an elastic closure and an expandable inner pocket that contains the Moleskine history.
