John Murray : Murray's handbook for Belgium and the Rhine. With travelling map before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Murray's handbook for Belgium and the Rhine. With travelling map:

Excerpt from Murray's Handbook for Belgium and the Rhine: With Travelling MapIt is advisable to take a small supply of English gold to pay the ex penses in the steamboat and on landing, as well as to guard against run ning short of money in places Where circular notes cannot be cashed. English sovereigns bear a high premium all over' Germany, and in shops and inns at all the large towns they ought to be taken at their full value.About the PublisherForgotten
