Manola Costanzi, Domitilla Petriaggi : My Secret Rome: A Girl's Guide to Intimate Rome before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised My Secret Rome: A Girl's Guide to Intimate Rome:

Filled with eye-catching photos and color illustrations, this is the perfect vade mecum for all women—tourists and “unobservant” Romans alike—who want to discover and experience the thousands of unexpected and up-to-the-minute resources that Rome has to offer. Soak in the waters of a spa created in a bank vault, find a naughty little shop of burlesque clothes, try a genuine Roman pizza, discover the intriguing Palazzo della Scimmia with the eternal flame on its tower, reach the heights of the Altare della Patria in a crystal lift, or know the best spot to admire the sunset along the Lungotevere. You'll find the coolest places in Rome in the pages of this book, a precious elixir of insider tips and addresses of all the best kept secrets of the most in-the-know, born-and-bred Roman women.

About the Author Manola Costanzi is a senior editor and an avid traveler. She is the former head of marketing and communications for 12.88, a major Italian telephone company. Domitilla Petriaggi is a lawyer. They both live in Rome.
