Barbara Sloan Hendershott, Alzina Stone Dale : Mystery Reader's Walking Guide, London (NTC passport guides) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mystery Reader's Walking Guide, London (NTC passport guides):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Exploring the mysteries of LondonBy P. Larkin HuttonWe used this book as a guide for a trip to London a few years back. My husband is an ardent mystery fan, and I like Georgette Heyer whose books are included. We did several of the guided walks profiled here. We really enjoyed walking around, and the book gave a theme and context to what would otherwise have been meandering without purpose. I would recommend it highly, and I will try some of the author's other books in future travel.

The Ideal Book for...Mystery Readers, Literary Buffs, and Stay-at-Home Adventurers...in a new edition.
