From Schlebrugge Editor : New Vienna Now: Contemporary Vienna before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised New Vienna Now: Contemporary Vienna:

Conducting a fascinating trip through the famed capital of Austria, this travel guide covers all of the most exciting creative scenes of Vienna. From the architecture of the Coop Himmelblau to the art of the finest galleries and museums, the chapters also explore the Austrian School of Modern Design, the current fashion scene, local cinemas and film festivals, and the city's most popular magazines and music. Equally suitable for day-trippers in preparing for their visits as well as specialists seeking background information, this handbook also provides the addresses and websites to various hotspots. Accompanying photographs accentuate each of the city's offerings, and images from artists such as Martin Guttman, Eva Schlegel, Andrea Witzmann, Margherita Spiluttini, and Sigrid Kurz are featured.

About the Author Christoph Thun-Hohenstein is the strategic managing director of Departure and the former director of the Austrian Cultural Forum in New York.
