I've been to London a few times and never want to go again to the touristy sights, but I still have a lot to learn, hence my buying this book. It's really a small atlas with lots of information. On each map page, there are entries for categories, "Coffee," "Restaurants," "Nightlife," "Shopping," "Landmarks," etc. Curiously, no "Pubs." Sometimes they are in "restaurants" and sometimes "nightlife."It's a small, fat little book, so easy enough to pack along. But I guess I was hoping for something more. I wanted a little more behind the scenes, insider information about the city. As it is, it seems, it's guide book/atlas in one, just with smaller print and more pages. Still, helpful, and

I'll take it along this time.
