Jennifer Sherwood, Nikolaus Pevsner : Oxfordshire (Pevsner Architectural Guides: Buildings of England) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Oxfordshire (Pevsner Architectural Guides: Buildings of England):

Oxford's unique collection of university and college buildings both old and new form a major part of this book. The city itself with its medieval walls and castle and ancient churches is also fully described. Among the county's distinguished houses are Vanbrugh's Blenheim and Kent's Rousham Park, each in magnificently landscaped grounds, while village churches range from notable Norman examples such as Iffley to G.E. Street's inventive Victorian creations such as St Simon St Jude at Shipton-under-Wychwood. Other attractive towns in this still strongly rural county vary from stone-built Chipping Norton in the Cotswolds to brick-built Henley on the Thames.
