Michael Pearson : Pearson's Canal Companion: Leeds Liverpool: West Yorkshire Waterways before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Pearson's Canal Companion: Leeds Liverpool: West Yorkshire Waterways:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. More readable at a glance. By terrdil Like the details presented with icons, Do not have to read text to see what amenities are coming up. However takes a bit of time to remember that North can be anywhere. Their format is side to side always unlike Nicholson which keeps North up.

Key places featured include Sowerby Bridge, Wakefield, Castleford, Selby, Goole, Leeds, Bingley, Skipton, Burnley, Blackburn, Wigan, Leigh, Burscough and Liverpool. The Canal Companions have been chugging along 'the cut' for over thirty years; conveying facts and figures, insight and entertainment, wit and wisdom: from Brentford to Burscough, from Shardlow to Sharpness, from Tipton to Todmorden. All manner of folk have been encouraged to explore the inland waterways using these guides, which have become as much a part of tradition as their subject matter.

About the Author Michael Pearson has been the author for more than thirty years of this well known series and also the 'Iron Roads' series, plus 'Railway Holiday in Scotland', 'Coming up with the Goods', 'Me, My Morgan the Midlands' and 'Journeys into Staffordshire'.
