I ended up needing an equivalent map for part of Norway while I was in Europe, (I miss the good old days when gasoline stations gave away road maps for free. I bought the Norway map in a Norwegian bookstore for twice the price I paid at . I wish I had ordered a Norway map from also.

We found this an excellent road map to navigate around Holland and Belgium. Even with a GPS we rented it was necessary to use this map. The GPS helped a bit, but since we could not understand how the GPS was pronouncing all the street/road names this map was critical. We checked the GPS's pronunciations against how the Hollanders pronounced street names and the GPS was WAY off unfortunately. And our GPS had a damn lisp or something and every time it said a word that started with A, D or E it came out as "Thwee". It was as if Tweety Bird was speaking! So we couldn't trust the GPS. We trusted this map.

A brand new sheet map covering the whole of Belgium and the Netherlands at 8 miles to 1 inch (1cm = 5km). Belgium and the Netherlands are shown on one side of the sheet, along with a comprehensive index, town plans and driving regulations. The map has been specifically prepared for long-distance travel, picking out major routes and destinations in bold colours for easy planning and route-finding. The map is a convenient size for using in the vehicle. The digital mapping gives excellent clarity, showing road networks in exceptional detail. Town plans are provided for Amsterdam, Antwerp, Brussels and Luxembourg. High quality travel information includes a wealth of useful detail marking named motorway junctions, car ferries, national parks, beaches, cathedrals, castles, ancient monuments and many other places of interest. Main map scale: 16 miles to 1 inch
