Teresa Fisher : Poland (Letters from Around the World) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Poland (Letters from Around the World):

Young readers will learn about the life of nine-year-old Julia through her 'pen-pal' letters, which are accompanied by information about the subject of the letter. Julia's home, family, city, school, sports and other activities are explored. Includes full 'color photographs, fact file, glossary, further information, and index. 32 pages.
