However, there was a language problem. Although I had gathered a lot of information about the country, its people, history, culture, food and main tourists' attractions, and all of them were quite appealing, however I didn't know anything about Portuguese language. To clear this language barrier, I started searching online for some kind of guide that could help me in learning the language fast. After coming across many different kinds of online stuff about Portuguese language, I found this book. It's amazing. Really. It helped me in getting familiar with the language, about which I knew nothing. The way it explains and guides about the basics of Portuguese language are awesome. It's well written and in easy words. Can you believe? With a little practice, now I can speak Portuguese fluently. Thanks to this amazing book!
