Marie-France Arlon, Mario Pasa : Prague, la ville doree (PocheCouleur No. 3) (French Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Prague, la ville doree (PocheCouleur No. 3) (French Edition):

Prague appears freshly unveiled, as if emerging from a winter mist, though slightly blackened by soot. This city in the heart of Europe boasts over a thousand years of history. An astonishing range of architectural styles have merged together over the centuries. In Prague baroque art dominates as a unifying force, and actually succeeds in tempering the city's almost violent architectural diversity.
